

Announcement of Kut Kung Subdistrict Administrative Organization
Regarding the policy of not accepting any gifts or presents of any kind in the performance of official duties (No Gift Policy)
Fiscal year ๒๐๒๖
****

I, Mr. Thongchai Sangsri, Mayor of Kut Kung Subdistrict Administrative Organization, in my capacity as the highest-ranking executive of Kut Kung Subdistrict Administrative Organization, hereby declare a "No Gift Policy" against all gifts and presents received in the performance of official duties. I also hereby declare the intention of all executives, civil servants, subdistrict employees, and contract employees of Kut Kung Subdistrict Administrative Organization that this organization is a "No Gift Policy" where executives and all personnel will not accept any gifts or presents in the performance of their duties. We will work together to create a culture of integrity within the organization, fostering a sense of civic responsibility, cultivating positive attitudes and values in performing our duties, prioritizing the public interest over personal gain, maintaining a public spirit, performing official duties correctly, transparently, fairly, and without discrimination, not using our positions to profit from the suffering of the people, refraining from any actions that create a conflict of interest between personal and public interests, and not accepting any property or benefit that can be calculated in monetary terms from anyone, other than property or benefits rightfully due according to the law, except for acceptance of property or other benefits in accordance with ethical principles and amounts as determined by the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC). This also includes adhering to the ethical standards of the organization's officials. The administration of Kut Kung Subdistrict and its guidelines on giving or receiving gifts or other benefits by government officials of all positions and levels within the Kut Kung Subdistrict Administrative Organization must be strictly enforced.

Therefore, to demonstrate its commitment to combating all forms of corruption and to enhance transparency within the organization, foster a culture of integrity in performing duties, and prevent unfair practices and conflicts of interest, the Kut Kung Sub-district Administrative Organization has a policy and intention for all executives, sub-district employees, and personnel to "refrain from giving or receiving" any gifts or presents of any kind, including any other benefits derived from performing their duties (No Gift Policy), whether before, during, or after performing their duties, as this could lead to corruption and misconduct both now and in the future.
